Ping G25 Hybrid Golfing in March to many who live in this area, is a miracle; especially for course and driving range owners. Adam Brinkman works at North Iowa Golf and says that while the range has only been open for a couple of days, it has been busier than ever.

ping g30 fairway wood According to the National Golf Federation, the average number of rounds of golf played per course, per year, dropped 20 percent over the past two decades. While new courses continue to be built, the number of closures has outnumbered the number of openings each year since 2007.
