Fox News anchor Eric Shawn on Sunday debunked claims of widespread electoral fraud pushed by President Donald Trump and some of his allies at the network, calling them an insult to the thousands of election officials across the country who worked to ensure the process was free and fair.

The weekend anchor said on ﷺAmericaﷺs News Headquartersﷺ that the baseless and inflammatory claims about a rigged election were disputed by the government, election officials and voting experts and were ﷺdesigned to undermine your faith in American democracy. ﷺ

He aired video of Ben Hovland, the Trump-appointed chairman of the U. S. Election Assistance Commission, who said that the 2020 election was the most secure in history and among the best-run.

ﷺThe American people made their voice heard, and when we spread conspiracy theories and we donﷺt back that up with facts, it has an impact, ﷺ Hovland said.

Shawn also singled out Trumpﷺs claim that Republican election observers were blocked from watching vote counts in Pennsylvania and other states. He aired an excerpt of his Thursday interview with Philadelphia City Commissioner Al Schmidt, who called the claims ﷺtotally untrueﷺ and added that he saw no evidence whatsoever of voter fraud.
Shawn also addressed the conspiracy theory amplified by Trump that Dominion Voting Systems software used by several states deleted millions of Trump votes or switched them to Joe Biden.
