Inherited the glory from its jewelry, Bvlgari Astrale colored gemstone wrist watch gives each gem an excellent showing arena by the application of visual effect of colored gem art, skilled cut crafts and prong setting plus the featured selection of colored gemstone with rich and plumper gem following the concept of palette. Each gemstone in the little howcase?reflects and blends with each other to outline the glory effect like Milk Way. Golden and white gold materials embellished with various diamonds have been introduced one by one, which have gained much favorite of the public. The launch of the rose gold style which can add more warm beauty to the wearer cares for the preference of the oriental female perfectly. Ultimate incarnation The word Astrale refers to those outstanding and untouchable charm hanging on the sky, which related closely with the watch and jewelry making crafts of Bvlgari, the two connected with each other closely. Human beings has been fascinated with the beauty of stars and eternal alternating day and night, tried constantly to uncover the mystery of stars and kept thinking about meanings of cycles of season and sky since the creation of the world. It was the eager to figure out the relationship between human beings and the universe that stirred the birth of astronomy which represented star rules in ancient Greek. Theory which had research on the astronomical phenomena was considered as the oldest scientific origin. It gained huge development in the Mediterranean area and was transmitted to Rome, where the origin of Bvlgari resided deeply. The Arabis world was attracted by beauty of the mysterious universe as well at the same time. By experiencing several centuries, strong and in-depth desire to exploit and discuss the universe inspired thousands of works of designers, artists, poets and writers. The shining Astrale wrist watch The two brand new Astrale was made with diamond concentric case and rose or white gold base around which shining colored gemstones are embellished to form the shape of Milk Way. The 66 bright-cut diamonds shines indulged on the structure center of the three concentric circles, carious precious stones such as topaz, citrine, garnet, tourmaline, olivine, amethyst and so on are all dotted and manifested in egg, heart-shaped, bright, pear shaped and so on to manifest various magnificent luster of the sky. The creative design and elegant satin strap reflect each other to provide perfect background for the gems, which looks like some stars dotted playfully the deep night sky. Gems are closely around the pearl dial to become the gorgeous stage of the hour and minute hands of the Calibre B033 quartz movement. Combination of different texture and visual adjustment bring Astrale profound and brightky?to highlight the meaning of the ultimate creation.
