The&#65533;Triple White&#65533; suit

The adidas EQT adidas eqt men's Support RF Primeknit releases in a classic core black theme for its latest rendition this summer and it&#65533;s nice to rock for any occasion. Built with a one-piece Primeknit sock upper and extra-soft knitted ribbing around the collar, the design is completed with a white midsole, three stripes branding on the side panels and a black rubber outsole.

Retailing for a price tag of $160, look for the adidas EQT adidas eqt 2017 Support RF Primeknit Core Black at select adidas stores and online today. Fall brings a number of autumn-ready tonal shades usually within the olive green and cargo khaki realm, and today we get a look at the perfect adidas EQT Support 93/17 Boost to hold you down until winter comes. This adidas Equipment and Ultra Boost hybrid features full-length Boost cushioning paired with a premium Primeknit woven upper in muted tones of khaki and olive green. There&#65533;s no word yet on a release date, but expect this pair to arrive at select retailers in the near future.

BAIT and adidas adidas eqt online are cooking again as the renowned sneaker/toy shop teams up with the German sportswear brand for a revised take on the EQT Support 93/16 model. This silhouette, bolstered by the classic Ultra Boost cushioning system, features a brand new &#65533;cage&#65533; construction on the upper that features a light mesh screen and support cables that provide lockdown. The full Primeknit upper is constructed in an angelic &#65533;Triple White&#65533; suit, but the hidden detail is a secret glow-in-the-dark treatment that reveals itself after they&#65533;re charged up in the light.

BAIT is set to announce full release details for their latest collaboration, which also encluded the EQT Support 93/17 Boost. Stay tuned for more details.
